1. The attached article entitled "American Representatives in RF Camps Back Fearists, Show Russian Democrats" appeared in the April 23 issue of The New Leader. After reading it you will realize that the authors are partly responsible for a number of the queries received here regarding the employment of Russian emigres. We say "authors" because in all probability David HALLIE, associate editor of The New Leader, and Boris NIKOLAEVSKY shared in its composition. Both HALLIE and NIKOLAEVSKY have frequently voiced their criticisms of GLAZKOP, VOSS, KARAKOVSKY, PROKHORICH, etc. to representatives of this organization as well as to other American agencies. Now they have made the matter one of public record and it strikes hard at American intelligence.

2. About two weeks prior to the publication of this article a VL/KIVA representative assured NIKOLAEVSKY and GOUL that GLAZKOP and VOSS had no connection with American intelligence authorities in Germany at the present time and that they should cease making allegations which could only have the effect of defeating the purpose of our policy abroad and cause increased dissension and suspicion among rival emigre groups. NIKOLAEVSKY stated that he was now assured about GLAZKOP and VOSS. Therefore we now have reason to hope that attacks such as contained in the attached article will not continue.
